Wednesday, March 30th, 2011 (cont’d):

12:00 Lunch Break (Visit Display Area)

Sponsored by:

IN PRACTICE: PROFILES OF COMMERCIAL HAY PRODUCERS

1:00 Farm Overviews of Three SE Hay Producers (TBA)
2:00 Producer Panel Discussion
2:45 Break
3:00 Door Prize Drawings and Field Exercises/ Demonstrations
   - Forage Sampling Methods and Tools
   - Soil Sampling and Interpreting Results
   - Plant Tissue Sampling and Interpreting Results
   - Measuring Soil Compaction

Financial support for this program is provided by:

Platinum Level:
America’s Alfalfa (www.americasalfalfa.com)

Gold Level:
Agrotain International (www.agrotain.com)
Inland Tarp & Liner (www.inlandtarp.com)

Silver Level:
Dow AgroSciences (www.dowagro.com)
DuPont Crop Protection (www.dupont.com)

Bronze Level:
Athens Seed Co. (www.athensseed.com)
Pennington Seed, Inc. (www.penningtonseed.com)
AGENDA

Tuesday, March 29th, 2011:
8:00  Sign-in and Get Notebooks/Materials
8:30  Welcome and Introductions

OVERVIEW OF THE COMMERCIAL HAY BUSINESS
8:45  Hay Production Economics and Outlook
     Dr. Curt Lacy, Extension Livestock Economist

9:15  Forage Quality I: Nutritional Quality
     Dr. Lawton Stewart, Extension Beef Nutritionist

9:45  Forage Quality II: Quality of Horse Hay
     Mr. Norman McGlohon, ANR Program Development Coordinator

10:15 Maximizing the RFQ of Your Hay Crop
      Dr. Dennis Hancock, Extension Forage Agronomist

10:35 Break (Visit Display Area)
     Sponsored by:

GETTING STARTED
10:50  Selecting the Right Species and Variety for Your Hay Enterprise
      Dr. Ann Blount, Extension Forage Agronomist and Plant Breeder (U. Florida)

11:20  Key Steps in Forage Establishment
      Dr. Dennis Hancock, Extension Forage Specialist

12:00 Lunch Break (Visit Display Area)
      Sponsored by:

BASIC HAYFIELD MANAGEMENT
12:45  Fertilization Fundamentals for Hay Producers
      Dr. Glen Harris, Extension Agronomist-Soil Fertility

1:20  Weed Management Options for Hay Producers
     Dr. Tim Murphy, Extension Weed Scientist

2:00  Insect Management Options for Hay Producers
     Dr. David Buntin, Extension Entomologist

2:30  Break (Visit Display Area)
     Sponsored by:

Wednesday, March 30th, 2011:

ADVANCED HAYFIELD MANAGEMENT
8:00  Coffee and Doughnuts and Visit Display Area

8:30  Alfalfa and Perennial Peanut Production in the South
      Dr. Dennis Hancock, Extension Forage Agronomist

9:00  Evaluating New Hay Enterprises
      Dr. Curt Lacy, Extension Livestock Economist

      Dr. Mark Boudreau, Climate and Risk Management Extension

10:00 Irrigating and Monitoring Soil Moisture
      Rad Yager, Stripling Irrigation Park and CEA Mitchell County

10:30 Break

10:45 Forage Bermudagrass Varieties for Southeastern Hay Producers
      Dr. Bill Anderson, Forage and Biomass Breeder (USDA-ARS Tifton)

11:30 Fine-Tuning Fertilization in Your Hayfields
      Dr. Dennis Hancock, Extension Forage Agronomist
AGENDA

Tuesday, March 29th, 2011:

8:00  Sign-in and Get Notebooks/ Materials
8:30  Welcome and Introductions

OVERVIEW OF THE COMMERCIAL HAY BUSINESS

8:45  Hay Production Economics and Outlook
      Dr. Curt Lacy, Extension Livestock Economist
9:15  Forage Quality I: Nutritional Quality
      Dr. Lawton Stewart, Extension Beef Nutritionist
9:45  Forage Quality II: Quality of Horse Hay
      Mr. Norman McGlohon, ANR Program Development Coordinator
10:15 Maximizing the RFQ of Your Hay Crop
      Dr. Dennis Hancock, Extension Forage Agronomist
10:35 Break (Visit Display Area)

GETTING STARTED

10:50  Selecting the Right Species and Variety for Your Hay Enterprise
      Dr. Ann Blount, Extension Forage Agronomist and Plant Breeder (U. Florida)
11:20  Key Steps in Forage Establishment
      Dr. Dennis Hancock, Extension Forage Specialist
12:00 Lunch Break (Visit Display Area)

BASIC HAYFIELD MANAGEMENT

12:45  Fertilization Fundamentals for Hay Producers
      Dr. Glen Harris, Extension Agronomist- Soil Fertility
1:20   Weed Management Options for Hay Producers
      Dr. Tim Murphy, Extension Weed Scientist
2:00   Insect Management Options for Hay Producers
      Dr. David Buntin, Extension Entomologist

2:30  Break (Visit Display Area)

ADVANCED HAYFIELD MANAGEMENT

8:00  Coffee and Doughnuts and Visit Display Area
8:30  Alfalfa and Perennial Peanut Production in the South
      Dr. Dennis Hancock, Extension Forage Agronomist
9:00  Evaluating New Hay Enterprises
      Dr. Curt Lacy, Extension Livestock Economist
      Dr. Mark Boudreau, Climate and Risk Management Extension
10:00 Irrigating and Monitoring Soil Moisture
      Rad Yager, Stripling Irrigation Park and CEA Mitchell County
10:30 Break
10:45  Forage Bermudagrass Varieties for Southeastern Hay Producers
      Dr. Bill Anderson, Forage and Biomass Breeder (USDA-ARS Tifton)
11:30 Fine-Tuning Fertilization in Your Hayfields
      Dr. Dennis Hancock, Extension Forage Agronomist

Wednesday, March 30th, 2011:

8:00  Coffee and Doughnuts and Visit Display Area
8:30  Alfalfa and Perennial Peanut Production in the South
      Dr. Dennis Hancock, Extension Forage Agronomist
9:00  Evaluating New Hay Enterprises
      Dr. Curt Lacy, Extension Livestock Economist
      Dr. Mark Boudreau, Climate and Risk Management Extension
10:00 Irrigating and Monitoring Soil Moisture
      Rad Yager, Stripling Irrigation Park and CEA Mitchell County
10:30 Break
10:45  Forage Bermudagrass Varieties for Southeastern Hay Producers
      Dr. Bill Anderson, Forage and Biomass Breeder (USDA-ARS Tifton)
11:30 Fine-Tuning Fertilization in Your Hayfields
      Dr. Dennis Hancock, Extension Forage Agronomist
Wednesday, March 30th, 2011 (cont’d):

12:00 Lunch Break (Visit Display Area)

Sponsored by:

IN PRACTICE: PROFILES OF COMMERCIAL HAY PRODUCERS
1:00 Farm Overviews of Three SE Hay Producers (TBA)
2:00 Producer Panel Discussion
2:45 Break
3:00 Door Prize Drawings and Field Exercises/ Demonstrations
   Forage Sampling Methods and Tools
   Soil Sampling and Interpreting Results
   Plant Tissue Sampling and Interpreting Results
   Measuring Soil Compaction

Financial support for this program is provided by:
Platinum Level:
   America’s Alfalfa (www.americasalfalfa.com)
Gold Level:
   Agrotain International (www.agrotain.com)
   Inland Tarp & Liner (www.inlandtarp.com)
Silver Level:
   Dow AgroSciences (www.dowagro.com)
   DuPont Crop Protection (www.dupont.com)
Bronze Level:
   Athens Seed Co. (www.athensseed.com)
   Pennington Seed, Inc. (www.penningtonseed.com)